I'm a hardworking, persevering, and fast-learning individual with expertise as a Web Developer and ABAP Developer. On the web development side, I excel in creating front-end and back-end solutions, leveraging HTML, CSS, and JavaScript including frameworks for custom designs, and utilizing PHP and Python for robust backend functionalities. As an ABAP Developer, I bring proficiency in advanced tools and techniques, including SAP ERP, AMDP, Core Data Services (CDS), Smart Forms (RICEFW), BAPIs, BADIs, ALV Reports, and database management, ensuring efficient and innovative solutions for SAP environments.
